AN ACT to name a bridge on State Route 141 in Smith County in honor of the late Private First Class Woodrow Wilson Winfree, United States Army.

WHEREAS, from time to time, the members of this General Assembly have seen fit to name certain highways and bridges to honor the memory of those courageous members of the United States Armed Forces who gave their lives in the defense of our nation; and

WHEREAS, no person is more deserving of this honor than the late Private First Class Woodrow Wilson Winfree, United States Army, who lost his life on July 15, 1944, while serving in the European Theater during World War II; and

WHEREAS, like thousands of others of this nation's sons and daughters, Private First Class Winfree did not shrink from serving in combat, believing in the justice of the cause to protect our national security and liberty and to fight the evil of the Axis powers; and

WHEREAS, Private First Class Woodrow Wilson Winfree was one of many who gave their lives for the cause of Freedom during World War II and was the only one from the New Middleton community of Smith County to make the supreme sacrifice; and

WHEREAS, the namesake of President Woodrow Wilson, Private First Class Winfree was a native of Smith County and grew up on the Dyer's Branch fork of the Mulherrin Creek. He graduated from Gordonsville High School and then busied himself in farming operations with his parents and siblings; and

WHEREAS, when the United States suddenly found itself thrust into World War II, Woodrow Wilson Winfree was one of the first to lay down his plowshares and enlist in the Armed Forces on February 24, 1942. He completed his basic military training and was quickly assigned to one of the United States Army's elite divisions, the 2nd Infantry, the Indianhead Division; and

WHEREAS, this Division soon was selected to be one of the Army Divisions to spearhead the invasion of Europe and went about preparing to do so. After rigorous training, the Division waded ashore the Normandy Beachhead on D-Day Plus 1 and entered into the thick of the fighting to liberate Western Europe; and

WHEREAS, the fighting was fierce and the losses were high. As a prelude to a planned huge American offensive scheduled to begin on July 26th, the 2nd Infantry set up an outpost west of the city of St. Lo; and

WHEREAS, at noon on July 15, 1944, the machine gun squad of Private First Class Woodrow Wilson Winfree pushed their weapons into position behind a hedgerow. As the squad continued surveillance, Private First Class Winfree raised his head to ascertain any counter activity and became the victim of a sniper's bullet; and

WHEREAS, Private First Class Woodrow Winfree's final resting place is in the American Military Cemetery in Normandy, which is located just miles from the place where he surrendered his life for the cause of Freedom; and

WHEREAS, Private First Class Woodrow Wilson Winfree served with dignity, dedication, courage, and gallantry, giving his life for his country and for the cause in which he believed, and for that ultimate sacrifice, he deserves proper recognition; as a member of the United States Army, he proudly continued an essential tradition of American society: the concept of the citizen-soldier; and

WHEREAS, Private First Class Winfree's dedication to excellence in the military and his love of his family, his fellow soldiers and his country, exemplified in his sacrifice of life itself in defense of all that he held dear, stand as enduring examples of all the characteristics that have ensured the continued freedom of our nation and the preservation of its ideals over the course of our history; and

WHEREAS, this General Assembly wishes to name a bridge in the New Middleton community, where this valiant soldier was born and raised, to permanently commemorate the singular patriotism, courage, and commitment to duty of the late Private First Class Woodrow Wilson Winfree, United States Army; now, therefore,
